Improvements - 1944-48

During the summer of 1944, the shrubbery which now adorns our front campus, was planted. Slip covers for the stage furniture were made by the Home Economics Department. While the students were on vacation during the Christmas season, the gym floor was refinished and made to look like new.

When school commenced in the fall of 1945, several features made the year look more promising. It was at this time, that the Bleacher Campaign started. All of us had visions of bleachers in the gym instead of chairs, so with the cooperation of all the students, faculty, alumni, school board and residents of the community, on February 16, 1946 the Bleachers were dedicated to the Alumni who served their country in World War II.

September 1946 saw the floor of the halls, rooms and gymnasium of Dover High highly varnished and polished. A portion of the gym floor was removed and replaced. A light was placed outside the gym door, to help to prevent accidents on the stairway.

In May of the same year, the Home Economics room was redecorated. New valences, flowered draperies, an artificial window, a new Bendix washing machine, electric clock and new cooking equipment was added.

And now in our last year of Dover High, a most important improvement was added — that of a two way sound system in every room. This enables the students to hear the announcements better, and is also an invaluable timesaver for the teacher. It was during our last lap of our high school career that two new tables and twelve chairs were put into the library for our convenience.

So, readers, you can see how our school is on the upward trend and that modern education can and will be bettered.

Classes

Graduating

GLENN C. BAUBLITZ
"Baublitz" "Academic"
After School __ Architect
Activities: Archery Club, (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Treasurer, (2); Class President, (4); Newsette Staff, (3, 4); Yearbook Staff, (3); Track, (4); Class Play, (3); Extra-Curricular, 2, 3, 4).

Brains, appearance and personality make Glenn very popular with his classmates. His favorite saying, "Baublitz was here" will long be remembered, by his classmates.

RAYMOND L. BECHTEL
"Ramie" "Academic"
After School __ Aviation
Activities: Orchestra, (3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Horse-shoe Tournament, (2, 3, 4).

Another ringer! Who is this king of horse-shoe pitching? None other than our own Raymond Bechtel. Although Raymond is one of the shorter boys, he has shown his ability to pitch horse-shoes. He also is talented in music.

MERLE A. BOLTON
"Bolton" "Vocational"
After School _ Refrigeration
Activities: French Club, (3, 4); Junior Play, (3).

Merle is a bashful, shy, and studious boy. We believe that French Club is his hobby, or is it, Merle? We'll always remember Merle at the French Club Initiation. Did the "F" on your hand ever wear off? Merle has the reputation of being one of the noisiest in his "gang", especially at lunch hour.

STANLEY R. BOLTON
"Sun" "Vocational"
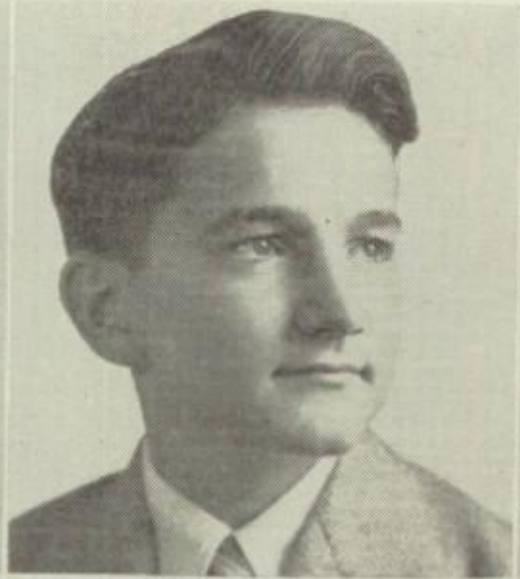
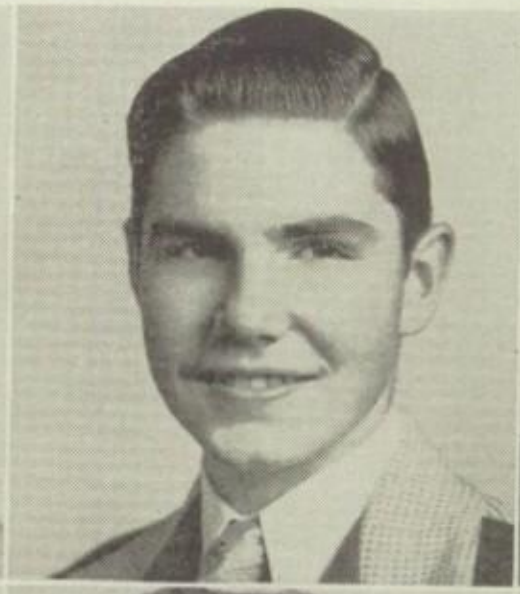
After School _____ Artist
Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Newsette, (3, 4).

People run for their lives when they see Stanley coming down the street in his Chevrolet. His techinque in art makes the Dover Hi Newsette outstanding. Stanley has the knack of making hearts flutter. Can you imagine Stanley without a flashy bow-tie and a dimple? We can't either.





CLAIR E. CRONE
"Salty" "Vocational"
After School ____ College
Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); Club Officer, (3, 4).

Clair is one of the quiet Seniors who is seen and not heard in study periods. Clair has a "39 Chevy" and is often seen racing up and down town. He is Vice-President of the F. F. A. and his main interest is Agriculture, that is, besides Romaine.

LORRAINE M. DEARDORFF
"Raine" "Vocational"
After School-Business School
Activities: Chorus, (4); Operetta, (4); Cantata, (4); Class Play, (3, 4); School Play, (4).

Boys take note—If in search for a future wife, Lorraine is the one you are looking for. An expert seamstress and a good cook, she will certainly fill your demands. Oh, and fellows, Rainie, isn't behind in looks either! We expect Lorraine to go far in her business career.

ROMAINE E. DEARDORFF
"Deardorff" "Vocational"
After School ____ Music
Activities: Junior Play, (3); Chorus, (3, 4); Cantata, (3,4); Operetta, (3, 4); Home Ec. Club (2, 3, 4); Librarian, (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball, (2, 3); Volleyball, (3, 4); Cheerleader, (2, 3).

Romaine has been an outstanding songstress and soloist while in D. H. S. Cheerleading was her sideline. Romaine can bake too, if needed.

JACOB C. EISENHART
"Jake" "Vocational"
After School ____ Farming
Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4).

A noisy boy is Jacob. He always has a smile and a joke. He can be seen in the school's field plowing with John Deere. And we mean D-E-E-R-E not D-E-A-R. Jacob is not fickle but we hear he likes pickles.

If Jacob doesn't get to bed in time, you can be sure it's not from studying too long,—not Jacob!

Class 1948

SCOTT B. EMIG

"Scottie" "Academic"

After School __ Mortician

Activities: Basketball, (1, 2, 3); Baseball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 3, 4); Cantata, (2, 3, 4); Vice-President, (2); French Club, (3,4); Class Play, (3); County Field Meet, (4).

Tall, Blonde and Muscular is "Scottie" the cassanova of the Senior Class. Scott is an all around athlete.

WAYNE J. EMIG

"Waynie" "Academic"

After School __ Business Mgr.

Activities: Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Class Play, (3).

Wayne is one of Dover's varsity soccer players. His following to the soccer games are the senior girls whom Wayne enjoys amusing in study halls as well as on hikes. A likeable flirtatious type is Wayne who once had a great deal of interest in East Berlin.

DELORES N. FLOHR

"Fliver" "Academic"

After School ____ Nurse

Activities: Basketball, (1, 2); Class Play, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4).

Delores is an active student in the French Club. She studies languages zealously. Her beautiful blue eyes often attract a certain Senior French student. She always has a smile and her giggle is heard in the lunch room and in classes. Her beauty and popularity go hand in hand.

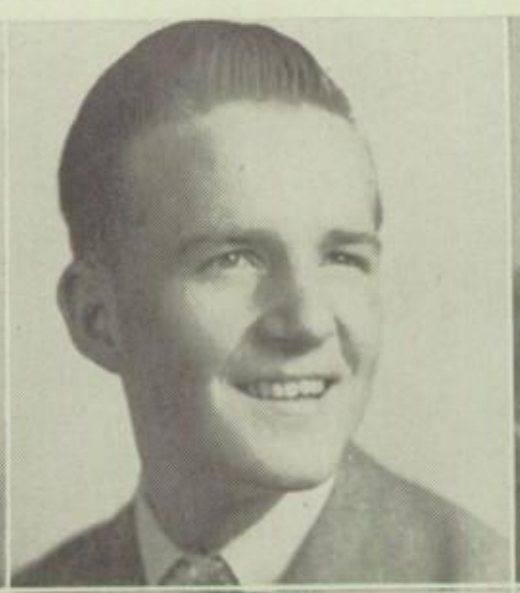
RICHARD H. FUNKE

"Dick" "Academic"

After School __ Army

Activities: French Club, (3,4); Yearbook Staff, (3);

Richard is a very quiet boy and always has a smile. He can be found with either Merle Bolton or Raymond Bechtel. He is active in French and is good in art work. His miniature model of Eiffel Tower won him a prize at the York Fair. Richard's favorite pastime is reading.



ETHEL L. GARRETT

"Garrett" "Vocational"

After School - Business College

Activities: F. H. A., (3, 4); Basketball, (2, 3); Junior Play, (3); Chorus, (3); Cantata, (3); Operetta, (3, 4); Newsette, (3, 4); Class Officer, (3).

Ethel's lively personality plus her vim, vigor, and vitality makes her a popular girl around the school. Ethel always has a smile and is willing to join in group's merrymaking.

HELEN L. GERBER

"Gerber" "Vocational"

After School - Business School

Activities: F. H. A., (2, 3, 4); Yearbook Staff, (3); Chorus, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Newsette, (3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4).

Who's that walking down the hall? Why, that's our own Helen Gerber, doing her twice daily chore of gathering absentee slips. She is also co-editor of Dover Hi Newsette. Helen likes to play volleyball.

JESSIE R. L. GROSS

"Jessie" "Academic"

After School ____ Nurse

Activities: Cheerleading, (2, 3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); School Play, (3); Cantata, (3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); Yearbook Staff, (3); Club Officer, (3).

Jessie Rae will be remembered as the leader of the cheerleading squad. Roller skating and hiking are her hobbies. Jessie Rae is always dependable.

STANLEY E. GROSS

"Hack" "Academic"

After School - Business School

Activities: Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball, (2, 3, 4); Orchestra, (1, 2, 3, 4); Newsette, (1, 2, 3, 4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Class Play, (3); Operetta, (2, 3, 4); Cantata, (2, 3, 4); Archery Club, (3); Track Team, (3, 4).

Stanley is the boy whom most girls like and admire even though it is secretly. He is a cornetist, actor and singer.

Graduating

WILLIAM H. HARLACKER
"Bill" "Vocational"
After School __ Mechanic
Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Soccer, (1, 2, 3).

William is one of the tall seniors with curly hair. He is so modest, so shy, ahem, where were we? Oh, yes, we forgot, he did change. However, "Bill" does know the principles of Agriculture, as he's a member of the F. F. A. It has been proven that William can get along without brains.

ANNAMAE L. HENRY
"Henry" "Vocational"
After School ____ Nurse
Activities: Home Ec. Club, (2, 3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4).

Listen: Did you hear that laughter coming through the halls? Well, sit calm, and don't get frightened for that's none other than Henry and her side kick Delores Metzel.

Besides having fun Annamae is also active in her books and the Home Ec. Club.

PHYLLIS M. HOFFMAN
"Phyl" "Academic"
After School - Business College
Activities: Newsette, (3, 4); School Play, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Club Officer, (3).

Here we have a quiet (?) shy girl with dark hair and brown eyes. She and her shadow (Alma Jacobs) can be seen together almost any time during the day in the environs of Dover High School.

ALMA L. JACOBS
"Jake" "Academic"
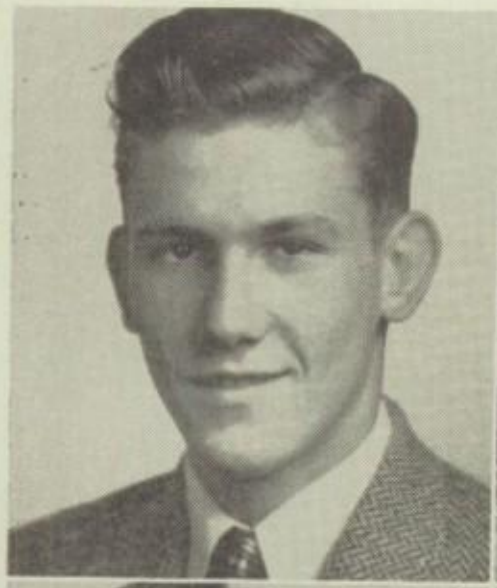
After School - Business College
Activities: French Club, (3, 4); Newsette, (3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); School Play, (3, 4); Class Treasurer, (4).

Alma returned to school her senior year with the latest style (tortoise shell) glasses, a good sun-tan and a new laugh—all of which added to her personality. Alma is usually the center of attraction.



MARTHA M. KRONE
"Martha" "Vocational"
After School ___ Position
Activities: F. H. A., (2, 3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); School Play, (4); Basketball, (1).

Martha is a very busy girl in the home economics room. The way she can work in serving hot lunches and banquets is to be well noted. Martha has a certain reason, other than exercise, for liking to skate.

DONALD L. KUNKEL
"Don" "Academic"
After School ____ College
Activities: Class Play, (3, 4); Newsette, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Yearbook Staff, (3).

Donald is one of the youngest and tallest members of his class. Being Editor-In-Chief of the Newsette takes brains of which Donald has plenty. Donald's manners and pleasant smile make him a popular member of his class.

Toys seem to be his hobby.

GEORGE W. LAIRD
"Wash" "Vocational"
After School __ Farming
Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Club Officer, (4); Soccer, (2, 4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 3); Cantata, (3); Class Play, (3, 4); Basketball, (3, 4); Baseball, (4).

George is one of our active F. F. A. members. Wherever there's a crowd of boys having lots of fun you can be sure that in the midst of them will be George.

E. RAYMOND LANKFORD
"Ford" "Vocational"
After School ____ Doctor
Activities: Class Play, (3); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 3, 4); F. F. A. Club, (2, 3, 4); Soccer, 1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball, (1, 2, 4); Class President, (3); Vice-President, (4); Newsette, (2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff, (3).

While in Dover High School, everyone gets to know Raymond. His participation in sports make him outstanding.

"Lentzie" "Academic"

After School ___ Position

Activities: French Club, (3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); School Play, (3); Chorus, (3, 4); Volleyball, (2, 3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4).

Betty is one of our tiniest seniors. She is very active in dramatics. She attracts the eyes of the opposite sex with her blond hair and blue eyes. Pastel blue becomes Betty. She's a member of the volleyball squad

DELORES A. METZEL

"Metzel" "Vocational"

After School ____ Nurse

Activities: F. H. A., (2, 3, 4).

Did you ever notice the expressions on the different faces as they pass through the halls? If you did, you noticed that Delores is one of the girls in school who always wears a smile, (when outside the class room proper). She is quite talkative, and can make plenty of noise when one doesn't want it.

FAY D. MILLER

"Fay" "Academic"

After School - Bus. and Music

Activities: Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Secretary, (1, 2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 3, 4); Newsette, (2, 3, 4); Orchestra, (2, 3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); School Play, (3); Yearbook Staff, (3).

Fay, the most popular girl in the class, enjoys playing leading roles in dramas. Basketball is her outstanding activity, in which she excels.

LOIS V. MILLER

"Looie" "Academic"

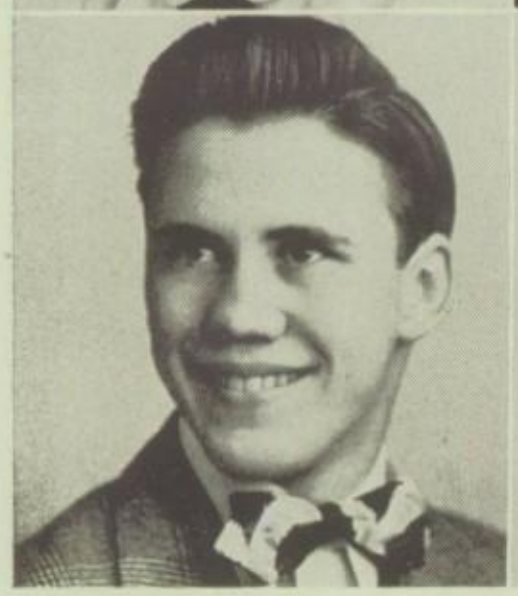
After School ___ Nurse

Activities: Class Historian, (1, 2, 3, 4); Cheerleader, (3, 4); Newsette, (2, 3, 4); Archery Club, (3); Club Officer, (3); Class Play, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4).

Lois is the cheerleader who drives the car to the soccer games—her main interest being a handsome senior boy. Her personality makes her popular.



WARREN E. MILLER

"Specks" "Academic"

After School __ Agriculture

Activities: Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball, (1, 2, 3, 4); County Field Meet, (4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 3, 4); Cantata, (2, 3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); Newsette, (2, 3, 4); Archery Club, (3).

If a party or dance, who attends all? "Specks".

What ever it is that the girls like, "Specks" has plenty of it.

HARRY N. MILLS

"Junior" "Vocational"

After School __ Farming

Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Baseball, (3, 4).

"Junior" is the tall bashful boy in the senior class. Although shy he is good in Agriculture and in cattle judging. As a baseball player he also shows his familiar figure on the mound during batting practice. From out of the past comes this fact, "He's a Dover Cowboy", when he drives his car.

WILLIAM T. MUMMERT

"Bill" "Academic"

After School - Big Businessman

Activities: Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball, (2, 3, 4).

"Bill" has been voted the most typical senior boy. He has that certain something that appeals to the girls in a quiet sort of way. One of our cheerleaders for soccer, thinks that "Bill's" just all right. A Frazer automobile was a common sight when Dover played away games.

DONALD E. MYERS

"Donnie" "Vocational"

After School __ Contractor

Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4).

Voted as the most friendly boy in the senior class, Donald's personality speaks for itself. His brown eyes, and winning ways attract girls readily. Donald drives a Pontiac which is always full of senior boys at noon, when he drives it in order to keep it from getting lazy. At least that's the reason he uses at home.

Graduating

ELEANOR F. MYERS

"El" "Vocational"

After School ___ Position

Activities: F. H. A., (2, 3, 4); Yearbook, (3); Chorus, (3); Cantata, (3); Operetta, (3).

Eleanor is a tall, slender senior ranking second to Judith. She is often seen with her many friends in the Home Economics room or in the lunch room, telling stories, dreams, nightmares, etc. We hear that Manchester is one of her favorite topics.

RAY A. NESS

"Buzz" "Vocational"

After School __ Position

Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Baseball, (2); Basketball, (3, 4); Class Play (3).

Tall, handsome and shy depicts Ray to the last word. Daily you can see Ray coming to school from Mt. Royal along with Baublitz. Ray's favorite hobby is eyeing the girls out of the corner of his eyes. His cute dimple and pretty teeth make him attractive.

JUDITH M. OBERLANDER

"Judy" "Academic"

After School - Business College

Activities: Cantata, (3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Class Play, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4).

Judith is the tallest girl in the senior class. She has black wavy hair which is an asset to her popularity. She is an active student in intra-mural basketball and enjoys French Club extra-curricular activities.

Where there's noise, there's Judith.

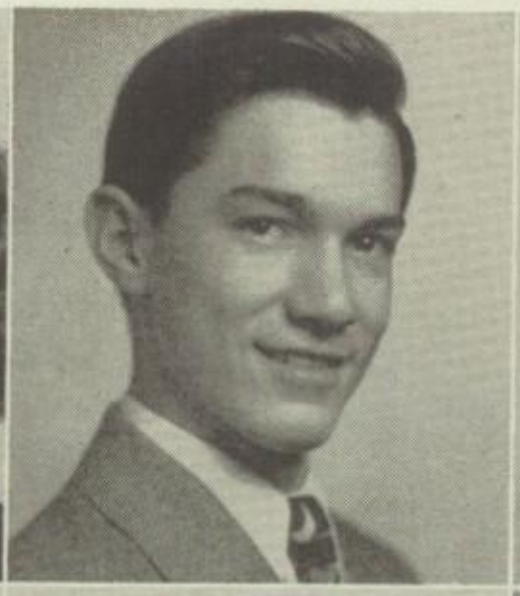
GLENN E. REELING

"Tractor" "Academic"

After School ____ Doctor

Activities: Soccer, (2, 3, 4); Basketball, (3, 4); Baseball, (2); County Field Meet, (2, 3, 4); Chorus, (2, 3); Orchestra, (1, 2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2); Newsette, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4).

A champion as a fullback of the Champion Soccer Team of Dover High, Glenn likes all sports. Glenn is a fine student, and is very jolly.



ALLEN R. SEIPLE

"Zuke" "Vocational"

After School __ Mechanic

Activities: Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball, (1, 2, 3, 4); F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff, (3).

Allen who is active in sports is also neat and studious. If Allen would use all the brains he has, at one time instead of giving most of them a rest, the outcome would be, "out of this world". Reading is his main hobby.

NILES H. SHEARER

"Niles" "Vocational"

After School __ Farming

Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Club Officer, (3, 4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 3); Cantata, (3).

Here we have the President of the Future Farmers of America. He represented Dover High in a York County F. F. A. Contest.

Niles is the dependable boy one can rely on to drive the tractor for hay rides.

ANNA SHELLENBERGER

"Pete" "Academic"

After School ____ College

Activities: Basketball, (1, 2, 3); Operetta, (1, 3, 4); Chorus, (3. 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Yearbook Staff, (3); Class Treasurer, (3,4); Newsette Staff, (2, 3, 4); School Play, (3); Class Play, 3, 4); French Club, (3,4).

Anna Mae is an outstanding student scholastically. Roller skating is her favorite pastime. She enjoys hiking, especially moonlight hikes.

ARLA M. SPAHR

"Arla" "Academic"

After School - Airline Hostess

Activities: Chorus, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Club Officer, (4); Yearbook Staff, (3); Track, (2, 3, 4); School Play, (3); Class Play, (3).

Arla has been a member of both Championship Track Teams, being an outstanding runner. Arla also served as President of Le Cercle Francais, her senior year.

"Stummy" "Academic"
After School ___ Position
Activities: Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Volleyball, (2, 3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Operetta, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Class Play, (3); School Play, (3); Newsette, (3, 4); French Club, (3, 4); Track, (3, 4).

Betty has won the honor of being on four York Co. Championship Teams two for basketball in 1945-1947; and two for track; 1946-1947.

BRUCE D. WALTON
"Pudink" "Vocational"
After School ____ Navy
Activities: F. F. A., (2, 3, 4).

Bruce is one of the outstanding Agriculture students. He just "does what comes naturally" and wins in fair exhibits and judging. His ability to make friends is well known.

If Bruce would use his mental ability to the fullest, well—who knows what would happen. As it is, no one needs to worry! Room 3 is his favorite room.

LUGETTA N. WAUGHTEL
"Jet" "Vocational"
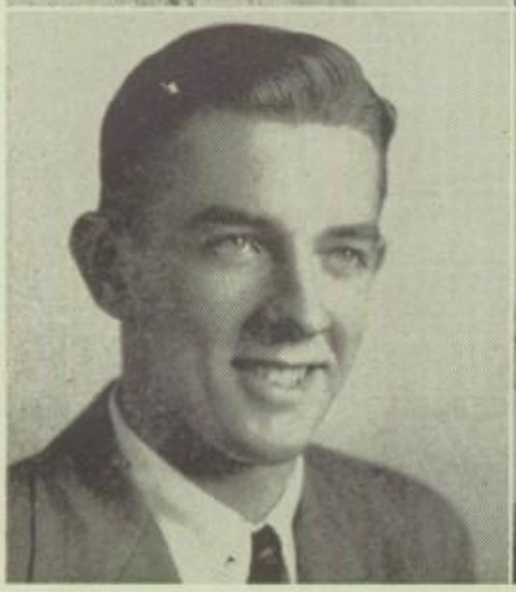
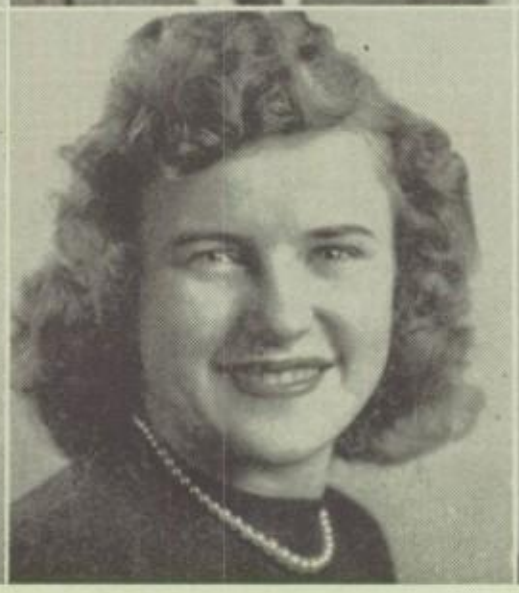
After School - Business School
Activities: Cheerleading, (3); Class Play, (3, 4); F. H. A., (2, 3, 4); Chorus, (3, 4); Cantata, (3, 4); Operetta, (3 4); Yearbook Staff (3,).

Lugetta is that senior girl with the long bob, of light brown hair. Too bad her name isn't Jeannie! And that isn't all, she's a swell dancer and can jitter-bug. Could be the reason she's so popular with the boys.





ARTHUR J. WEIGLE JR.
"Art" "Academic"
After School - Auto Mechanic
Activities: Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Soccer, (2, 3, 4); French Club, (3, 4).

Here we have a shy, tall senior. Arthur is the center of the boys basketball team, and the goalie for the soccer team, besides being an active member of the baseball team.

A certain brunette in the Junior class takes up his leisure time.

MARIE G. WENTZ
"Wentzy" "Vocational"
After School __ Position
Activities: Chorus, (4); Operetta, (4); Cantata, (4); Junior Play, (3).

A quiet demure "Miss" is our Marie. She has a sense of humor for which she is quite popular. Marie enjoys her work in Home Economics and won an award at the York Fair for her work in this field.

Someday Marie hopes to have her own nursery.

CLAIR B. ZINN
"Zinny" "Vocational"
After School __ Mechanic
Activities: Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Operetta, (2, 4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Cantata, (2, 3, 4); Music Festival, (4); F. F. A., (2, 3, 4); Soccer, (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball, (1).

Clair was spoiled and shy his freshman year in school, but just the opposite when a senior. He is fond of roller skating and takes an interest in pretty girls.

The Junior

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '49

CHAPTER I

On September 6, 1945, we the class of '49 entered into the halls of Dover High School as a happy crowd of freshmen. There were sixty-six of us. We were divided into two rooms, room 6 and room 10, under the supervision of Mr. Stanley Mussleman and Mr. Richard Walters.

At our first class meeting we elected class officers and class advisor. Mrs. Virginia Kunkle was chosen as class advisor while these were the officers selected: President, Kenneth Lehr; Vice-President, Glenn Baughman; Secretary, Dudley Stouch; Treasurer; Phyllis Smith; and Evelyn Edgar, Historian for four years.

The red rose was selected as the class flower and navy blue and white as the class colors. "Out of the harbor, into the deep" was chosen as the class motto.

The first activity of the year was a class Hallowe'en party which was held at Brookside Park. As freshmen we also sponsored a Christmas Party for the school which was held in the school auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus were there and presented everyone with a gift.

During our first year we welcomed into our class three new members. They were as follows: John Coyle, Bessie Schaffner, and Lois Swope. We lost two members, Allen Deitz and Faye Kauffman. That left our class with sixty-seven members.

On the last day of school we motored to Hershey Park. We were accompanied by Miss Helen Tate, Mrs. Gloria Kahn, and Miss Mayme McDowell.

Class of 1949

CHAPTER II

After a three month vacation we returned to Dover High School with fifty-seven of us. We were proud Sophomores now. We were happy to welcome into our class Dean Gross and David Quickel. We were sorry to say, "Goodbye" to John Coyle, Patricia Gentzler, Lolita Hall, Alyce Lamparter, Charles Leber, Wayne Leckrone, Brenton Miller, Paul Myers, Bessie Schaffner, Marlyn Stump, Lois Swope, and Wallace Wert.

The officers chosen for the Sophomore year were as follows: President, Glenn Baughman; Vice-President, Patsy Baker; Secretary, Loris Baublitz; Treasurer, Glenn Snelbecker; Mrs. Virginia Kunkle resigned so the class elected Miss Helen Tate.

As Sophomores it was our turn to have the school Hallowe'en Party. The auditorium was beautifully decorated.

During the year Herman Beck, Claire Brenneman, Barbara Grim, Richard Feeser, Glenn Reisinger, Paul Shorb, and Quintin Small left our class. A skating party at "Playland" was the most important event for us. Our class also sponsored the movie, "Claudia".

Again on the last day of school our class visited the State Buildings at Harrisburg and then journeyed to Hershey Park with Miss Helen Tate as supervisor.

CHAPTER III

After a short and peaceful summer, the third chapter of our book was opened for another year of studying and learning. We were real important for we were now Juniors. Gosh, next to the Seniors!

At our first class meeting the election of officers took place. They were: President, Glenn Baughman; Vice-President, Glenn Snelbecker; Secretary, Loris Baublitz; and Treasurer, Phyllis Smith. Of course, Miss Tate remained as class advisor.

As Juniors, it was our duty to publish the 1948 Memoscope. Patsy Baker headed the Year Book with her staff as follows: Glenn Baughman, Mary Ida Gerber, Doris Marx, Mary Jane Spahr, Helen Limbert, Dawn Small, Flurene Garrett, Lottie Stover, Phyllis Smith, Jacqueline Smith, Kenneth Lehr, George Airing, Jeanne Gross, Paul Berkheimer, Louise Frey, Dudley Stouch, Juan Sutphin, Raymond Wilt, John Spangler.

A skating party was held by the Junior class at "Playland" on November 26. Proceeds went into the class treasury.

We were glad to welcome into our class Rita Davis, Delvin Rodgers, Donald Smth and Barbara Weaver. During the year we were sorry to have the following leave us: Nancy Cookson, Evelyn Edgar, Phyllis Hamme, Ruth Kauffman, Winifred Moody, James Nesbit, Wilbur Plowman, Delvin Rodgers, Donald Smith, and Juan Sutphin. Juan Sutphin has enlisted in the Marines. Best of luck to you, Juan. Due to the fact that several members left we had to elect a new Secretary and Historian. Those elected were Patsy Baker as Secretary, and Jeanne Gross as Historian.

"Mama's Baby Boy" was the name of the Junior play and was presented in December. We'll never forget Glenn Baughman as "Mama's" Baby Boy, and Faye Hess as "Daddy's" Baby Girl. Flurene Garrett and Kenneth Lehr also co-starred as leads in the play. Everyone in the class helped to make the play a success. Miss Helen V. Tate coached the cast.

May 26 ended our Junior year, thus after the graduation exercises, we became Seniors.

Historian—Jeanne Gross.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '50

CHAPTER I

School opened with sixty-one freshmen. During the year we welcomed into our class: Richard Crisamore, Ruth Gettys, Gerald Hamme, Nancy Shorb, and Robert Stauffer. These students left: Richard Crisamore, Gerald Hamme, Charles Leber, Elberta Shultz, James Smith, and Glenn Wiley.

We elected Miss Carrie Shellenberger as our Class Advisor, and these officers: President, Charles Miller; Vice-President, Wallace Wert; Secretary, Elberta Shultz; Treasurer, Charles Haas; Historian, Grace May. Margaret Wintermeyer filled the vacancy made by Elberta Shultz.

Class colors were Orchid and Yellow; Class Flower, Yellow Rose. Our Class Motto, "The elevator to success is not running; take the stairs."

CHAPTER II

September 2, 1947 we elected the following officers; President, Earl Smith; Vice-President, Charles Miller; Secretary, Delores Linebaugh; Treasurer, Elsie Weinhold. Advisor and Historian, retained their positions.

We welcomed into the class, William Cadwallader, Nancy Meals, Resta Moody, Kerwin Sipe, and William Rife. The following left school: William Cadwallader, William Rife, Chilton Snyder, Wallace Wert, and Nancy Witman. Later Wallace Wert reentered our class.

We gave a Hallowe'en Party for the school, had a hayride and a skating party.

Historian—Grace May.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '51
CHAPTER I

As we came up the walk on that warm September morning in 1947, everyone was gay and seemed full of joy. We were beginning our high school career.

When our teachers counted us, we the class of '51 had a total of 57 members. We made a fine looking class with such a large number, but soon four of our classmates left us—we were sorry to lose: Gladys Berkheimer, George Raffensberger, Dora Spangler, Joyce Nesbit, Phyllis March, Dean Stambaugh and Malcolm Lehr. We had one great tragedy in our freshman year—Phyllis Wert died in an automobile accident. We now had 49 members.

Class Meeting time will long be remembered. At our first session we elected the following officers: Wayne Gross as President, James Dawes as Vice-President, Doris Spangler as Secretary, Frederick Miller as Treasurer and Jeanne Weaver as Historian. Mr. Richard E. Walters was elected class advisor. We selected the White Rose as our class flower; the colors, Navy Blue and White as our class colors, and this, "Sapere aude." as our class motto.

We, as Freshmen, had charge of the Christmas Party for the school which was held in the gym on December 24. Santa presented each student with a gift.

On class night, all freshman displayed their school colors of navy blue and white. So we ended our first year of Dover High School.

Historian, Jeanne Weaver.

Athletics

Junior-Senior

So many girls have reported for cheerleading during the past several years, that it has been necessary to have try-outs, in order to select those girls most adapted to this type of activity. Cheerleading requires long and hard practice to learn when and how to put in to use the school cheers, songs and yells.

In the upper photograph we have pictured for you, senior high girls who act as cheerleaders for soccer, senior high basketball and girls basketball. Jessie Rae Gross is head cheerleader, due to her years of experience, and the fact that she is a senior. Jessie has charge of cheerleading during basketball season.

During soccer season Phyllis Smith and Dawn Small interchangeably acted as leaders. Lois Miller and Jeanne Gross completed the squad. Patsy Baker is a newcomer to the Senior High Group.

We bid our adieu to Jessie Rae Gross and Lois Miller who graduate.

In the lower picture we have a group of ninth and tenth grade girls who cheer for Jr. High Basketball. These girls will in a few years be the leaders of the senior high squad.

Grace May and Ruth Miller act as leaders of this group. Other sophomores on the squad are Margaret Morgart, Andrea Perry and Elsie Weinhold.

Freshmen girls who are novices in this group are: Donna Beam, Mildred Bubb, June Dawes, Nancy Moul, Helen Snelbecker, Zita Strayer.

Miss Helen Tate has charge of organization and handling of these groups.

Girls Track

For two consecutive years the girls of Dover High School have held the York Co. Championship Track Title. In May of 1946, the girls first won the track title in a track meet held at Small's Field, York, Pa. This was the first year of track competition for Dover girls. Other competitors were: North York, Red Lion, Dallastown, and Hallam. The final score for Dover was 21 points against North York's 19 points.

In May 1947, the title was retained, the score being 15 points for Dover and 12 points for North York and Dallastown. Competition this year was offered by: Dallastown, North York and Manchester.

Girls who helped to win the Championship in 1947 were Loris Baublitz, Arla Spahr, Jean Eisenhart and Betty Stambaugh; also Ruby Yankey and Luella Leibenknecht who graduated in '47.

The Dover High Girls' Sextette tied for first place in the York County Girls' Scholastic Basketball League, this year, having lost one game. They were defeated in a playoff game 21-15.

These girls served as the varsity for this year: F. Miller, L. Miller, L. Frey, J. Gross, forwards; B. Stambaugh, P. Smith, D. Small, J. Smith, guards.

Entering their sixth year of league competition in the York County Girls' Basketball League, the Dover High School Girls' Team has again shown itself to be one of the outstanding teams of the County.

Throughout the season the girls worked hard and proved their skill in more than one contest. The guards are to be commended on their ability to hold down the forwards of their opponents, especially since only one veteran guard was left on the team for this year. The forwards, too, did a good piece of work, as the scores for the various games proved.

Competition this year was offered by Dallastown, York Collegiate Institute, North York and West York.

These girls have played on championship teams while in high school and have played at least three years of veteran basketball. They are in this year's graduating class: Fay Miller and Lois Miller, who played forward positions; Betty Stambaugh, who played guard position.

Baseball

Baseball, a sport of the United States is a national pastime. It is played all along the line from the sandlot game to the World Series. It is also one of the three main sports of Dover High.

Each season there are a large number of boys who report for the first practice. Some are experienced, others inexperienced. After a few practices the team is picked.

There are nine positions which are open. They are, Pitcher, Catcher, 1st. Base, 2nd Base, 3rd Base, Shortstop, Left Field, Center Field, and Right Field. Each of the positions must be filled by an alert quick thinking boy if the team is to be a success.

During the past season the following teams participated in the league competition, West York, Hallam, Dillsburg, Mt. Rose, North York, and Manchester, the league champions.

Although last year's team, coached by Mr. Ray Bitting, was not very successful, both the team and Mr. Bitting are looking forward to a better season this year.

The Dover High Soccer team which captured the York-Adams County Scholastic Soccer Championship is one of fame. They have competed with Lemaster in District 3 playoffs and was finally stopped in the Championship game of the District with Jonestown.

Ten of the original players who were on the Championship in 1946 were also participants in this year's tiffs. The teams had a near perfect record with a record of eight victories, four deadlocks and one defeat, that, handed down by Jonestown in the final play-off.

The team was spirited by the coaching of Mr. Lester R. Gross, who has ample experience. He has coached nine seasons out of which three times he has had teams to play in District Playoffs, a County Championship during the War when there was no District Meet, once in third place, once in fourth place and once in fifth place. Also tied twice for first place.

Each year there is always the big job of molding players to fill positions vacated by graduating seniors. This year with many championship veterans returning, underclassmen had a tough struggle to place on the team.

Junior-Senior

Junior High Basketball at Dover Hi School received its origin in 1944 under the direction of Mr. Gross. Officially in the league schedule the teams have not been able to win many games from other schools who have had Jr. Hi teams over a longer period of time, but the main purpose of the Jr. Hi Team in Dover is to give the boys more experience before they are candidates for the Senior Hi squad. All the boys that are the main Senior High team at present, were varsity men on the Junior high team when they were Freshmen.

The boys that played on the Junior Hi team in 1945-46 and 1946-47 seasons have received enough ability to make the Seniors work for their position on the team, and when you must work for your position, you play better basketball.

If the Junior Hi team doesn't win many games, support the team, because the main purpose is to encourage the boys to become better Senior high basketball players.

The senior high school basketball team of Dover was made up of veteran players this year, and as such proved themselves to be one of the better standing teams of the County League. Competition for these boys is always stronger because of the fact that the League set-up places the Dover team in with other teams from schools who have several times the enrollment of Dover, so consequently, they have more men to select from.

During the season Dover offered competition to the following schools: York Catholic High, West York High, North York High, Wrightsville, Red Lion and Spring Grove. In non-league competition they played Codorus, and York Springs.

Mr. Richard E. Walters is the coach of the Senior High squad. The team boasts of the Northern Division Championship in 1945. During that year Dover also shared the Sportsmanship Trophy. Dover High School students have been known to be good sports. Keep up the fine work students and players.

During the soccer season of this year, many students, alumni, and townspeople noticed an addition to the extra-curricular activities of the school, that of the Majorettes.

At that time of the year, the majorettes drilled on the soccer field to entertain the spectators before the game and during intermission.

In the fall of the year, several high school students who were interested in majorette work, decided to practice while at school, in the event that some day, maybe Dover would have majorettes. The novelty of the idea spread like fire, until at least twenty-five high school girls were interested and then the grade school children were invited to attend practices from eight to eight fifteen in the mornings.

At least twenty students from this group reported for practice daily. Ages varied from five to sixteen years of age.

Miss Jean Eisenhart, a member of the Junior class, trained the group. She was assisted by Miss Louise Frey, also a Junior. Miss Helen V. Tate aided the group in getting organized.

The present uniforms of the majorettes are white pleated skirts, and red sweaters. Hopes for regular majorette uniforms are still in the minds of people who are interested in this added attraction.

The list of majorettes who are practicing for the future are: Those listed on the opposite page under the picture, and: Doris Spangler, Barbara Weaver, Jeanne Weaver, Ruthanna Berkheimer, Margaret Morgart, Rita Davis. Activities

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of pupils studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools in the United States and its territories.

As an important part of the program of home economics in the schools of America, it offers the opportunity for a greater development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out various activities related to homemaking.

The Future Homemakers of America is composed of chartered state associations, which are made up of local chapters offering Home Economics. The Dover Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is one of York County's fourteen affiliated Chapters. The Dover Chapter was organized in September 1945.

Some Club activities for the year included the Initiation Party, and the F. F. A.-F. H. A. Skating Party. The making of Doughnuts, and roasting of peanuts are money making projects which were profitable during the year.

The Dover Future Farmers of America Chapter is one of the seventy-five hundred chapters of its kind in the United States. The first courses in agriculture were organized in 1917.

Our chapter was founded in 1930 and a part time schedule was carried out for eleven years, supervised by the county Advisor of Vocational Agriculture.

In 1941 a full program was organized and supervised by Mr. Stanley Mussleman. In 1946 Mr. Musselman resigned and Mr. Ray Bitting took over the vocational course in the High School.

Our program for the present year consists of the following: (a) Selling Christmas Cards and wrapping paper, (b) Two Broiler Projects, (c) Parties at the Y. M. C. A., (d) Hallowe'en Party, (e) Seed Program, (f) Election of County Officers, (g) Wheat Project (h) Leadership Training, (i) Basketball Team, (j) Farm Show, (k) Repair Farm Machinery, (l) Field Meet, (m) Senior Field Trip, (n) Chapter Exhibit at the York Fair, (o) Father and Son Banquet, (p) Chapter Trip, (q) Trip to Penn State.

Librarians

Each section of students has a librarian whose duty involves the checking of books, collecting of fines, arranging magazines and newspaper racks, mending books, and keeping library shelves in order.

The school's eight librarians are supervised by Miss Carrie Shellenberger, and together they stamp and file all new books which are purchased each semester. Dover High is proud of its fine library which now includes 1915 books.

For the first time, Dover High was represented at the librarian's conference for the counties in Eastern Pennsylvania which was held at Millersville State Teachers' College on October 24, 1947. The English born author, Janet Whitney, told the group of her literary career. The librarians attending this conference were: Betty Kinsey, Helen Snelbecker and Miss Carrie Shellenberger, advisor.

The library now includes six hard surfaced tables. Each table accomodates six students.

This group is composed of the intelligentsia of the high school. Le Cercle Francais is the French Club. This club is composed of strictly Academic Students. Although the members of the French Club write to students, and people in Canada, France, and other countries where French is written and spoken, and send overseas packages to French people, they still have time to have a good time socially.

The first social event of the year, is the Hallowe'en Party. This year, it was held at the home of Judith Oberlander. At this time, an informal initiation was given to the members of the Junior Class, who took an oath to study well their French, and learn to speak it.

Annually, the Club holds a Dance. This year it was held January in the form of a New Year's Dance. The Blue Horizon Orchestra from Dallastown furnished the music for the dancers.

During the year a skating party was held, and also a bowling and theater party. The Social Calendar was ended by a picnic.

Band

Dover Hi's Band of 1947-48 has a membership of twenty-seven students. The rehearsals are held regularly each Wednesday during the fifth period on the school schedule, with special rehearsals after school, when necessary.

The Band is divided into the following sections: Trombones, Clarinets, Piccolo, Saxophones, Snare Drum and Bass Drum.

A marching band was organized during this year. The purpose was for this group to provide music for the soccer and basketball games, in spite of its incomplete balance of instruments. The students cooperated well and they hope by next year to have the foundation for a good marching school band.

Miss Carrie Shellenberger is the leader of this organization.

The chorus is composed of Juniors and Seniors who like singing and enjoy performing in Cantatas and Operettas. This year's chorus presented the annual Christmas Cantata entitled "The Music of Christmas" by Ira B. Wilson.

The personnel, fifty in number, is divided into the following sections; Soprano, Alto, and Baritone.

Accompanists—Fay Miller, Anna Mae Shellenberger, and Grace May. Miss Carrie Shellenberger is the advisor.

"The Sunbonnet Girl", was chosen as the annual Operetta of the High School Chorus. This operetta was given on March 20, 1948. It was a comic operetta presented in two acts. The leading roles were portrayed by Dawn Small, the "Sunbonnet Girl", and Raymond Lankford, as "Bob Coleman"; Romaine Deardorff, as "Barbara Coleman" and Billy Brunk as "Jerry Jackson."

Other characters were Miranda—Ethel Garrett; Mrs. Meadows—Lois Miller; Luella Lumpton—Lugetta Waughtel; Hiram Meadows—George Laird; Evalina—Fay Miller; Reuben McSpavin—Glenn Baughman; Ezra McSpavin—Glenn Snelbecker; Mrs. Coleman—Arlene Paules; Mrs. Scroggs—Alverta Toomey; Abijah Scroggs—George Airing and Sadie Simpkins—Anna Mae Henry. There was also the chorus of village boys and girls. Phyllis Smith portrayed the part of the "Sunbonnet Girl Dancer."

School Play

"Strike Three", a comedy in three acts by Robert Ray, was the title of the School Play, which was given in the high school auditorium on October 18, 1947. The play was under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Laird.

The play centers around the home of Henry Dillon, a meek, middle-aged man who has never married, but believes he loves Barbara Saunders, who jilted him years ago. Henry's neighbor, Maggie Shannon, a spinster hopes that he will forget Barbara some day, and marry her. In the meantime, Henry goes to work in the Glue Factory. He becomes manager of a baseball team, which has a game within the week. When Henry meets the team, it is an all girls' team, with its captain, his old sweetheart. The result is as you expect, and is topped with hilarious results.

Cast; Henry Dillon, Donald Botterbusch; Iris March, Louise Frey; Maggie Shannon, Jeanne Gross; Michael Shannon, Jackson Davis; Jefferson Carter, Earl Smith; The Team: "Bobbie" Saunders, Flurene Garrett; "Dodo" Roberts, Jean Eisenhart, "Jess" Cramer, Faye Hess; "Irv" Sawyer, Martha Maye Krone; "Sonny" Dean, Betty Kinsey; "Johnny" Warren, Phyllis Wert; "Marty" Jessup, Mildred Bubb and "Teddy" Ross, Barbara Hunter.

The Dover Hi Newsette, an eight page newspaper, is published monthly by the students of the Dover High School. Miss Mayme R. McDowell is the advisor of the newspaper. The purpose of this paper is to guide the students, to keep them informed of school activities, and to act as a link between the school and the community.

The Dover High School Newsette was first published in the year nineteen hundred thirty-five.

Three times, the Newsette has won state wide recognition from the National Tuberculosis Society, which society presented certificates to the Editor-in-Chief of the staff. These certificates are now on display in the library.

This year, Donald Kunkel is the editor-in-chief of the Newsette, and Helen Gerber is the co-editor. The associate editors are: Lois Miller, Glenn Reeling, Glenn Snelbecker and Doris Marx. The feature page is compiled by Glenn Baublitz. Alma Jacobs is the Alumni Editor, and Phyllis Hoffman takes care of the exchanges. Stanley Bolton heads the Art staff.

The sports page is edited by Fay Miller and Stanley Gross, while the business end of the paper is in charge of Anna Mae Shellenberger and Betty Stambaugh. All departments have able assistants selected from the student body.

Senior-Junior

The Senior class play, "Don't Darken My Door," by Anne Coulter Martens was a lively three act comedy centering around the romantic novels written by Jane Perkins.

The trouble starts when Rosemary Kent, who is very much under the influence of several romantic novels by a Miss Jane Perkins, turns down her boy friend, Tom Garrick because he has no romance in his soul.

In addition to this, Peppy Foster, Rosemary's maid, spurns her faithful friend, Alec Stubbins.

The writer of the troublesome novels, Jane Perkins, appears on the scene to further confuse the plot.

Jane, Tom, and Rosemary's Uncle, Roger Kent, conspire to make Rosemary believe that Tom is a romantic lover.

Roger pretends to be a cruel uncle and orders Tom, "To never darken my door again." Tom, now in his role as a strong, silent man, vows his love to Rosemary.

Two old maids, Susie and Louisa Featherstone, arrive just in time to watch Tom and Rosemary elope and to stop Roger, who appears on the scene, from hindering them.

Alec and Poppy are reconciled when Alec makes a heroic entrance in a night shirt.

And to make the story complete, Roger and Jane discover their love for each other.

Miss Mayme R. McDowell, class advisor, coached the cast of the play for a successful presentation.

"Mama's Baby Boy" was presented by members of the Junior Class of the high school on December 13, 1947, in the high school auditorium.

Glenn Baughman portrayed the title roll of "Shephard McLean," while Faye Hess played opposite Shephard as "Julie Long".

The story centers around a widow, who in her forties, is planning a mercenary marriage, in order to keep her son, Shephard in college. She persuades Shephard to dress and act as a fourteen year old, in order to make her seem younger.

Luther Long, a widower, who is also in his forties, does likewise, having his seventeen year old daughter, dress as a child of twelve.

Naturally, the two youngsters become great friends while their parents are making love to each other. In the meantime, Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Blackburn and Minnie, the colored maid plus the three young friends of Shephard's all dress as youngsters to make the play one of endless mirth.

Mrs. Anglin, who lends money to Mrs. McLean to tide her over financially and Max Moore a real estate agent, add to the interest of the play.

The Alumni Organization of the Dover Borough and Dover Township Joint High School was organized in 1936. The purpose of this organization is to keep together and in closer relationship the students who graduate from their high school with their Alma Mater. Yearly, the organization has grown until the enrollment is now one hundred and ninety-six.

An annual banquet is held, usually in January. At that meeting, the officers to serve for that year are chosen. Business, both old and new is discussed, and an enjoyable time is had by all.

This year, the Alumni decided to revive the Alumni Play. The play was directed by Miss Carrie Shellenberger, an alumna and now a teacher of Music and Art in her Alma Mater, and Mrs. Velma Slothower another Alumna and Mrs. Virginia Kunkle, also an alumna and former teacher. The play was entitled, "The Folks Next Door." The cast included: Willard Stiver, Stanley Gladfelter; Dr. Samuel Hobson, Gurney Gross, Jr.; Sarah Stiver, Jacqueline Kunkel; Roy Stiver, Wayne Spangler; Zelda Hobson, Janice Border; Cleva Stiver, Jean Harlacker; Elwood Gronger, Robert Limbert; Donald Hobson, Kenneth Hoffman; Lola Ellington, Phyllis Small; Almira Gudgeon, Luella Leibenknecht; Byron Longley, Garth Plowman; Ellen Hobson, Maxine Gentzler. Ruby Yankey, in charge of tickets, ushers and advertising; Earl Pipher, property manager; Jessie Fix, costume and make-up chairman.

Due to the fact that yearbook pictures are needed earlier than the time of the annual meeting of the Alumni, the above picture does not correlate with the present officers which are as follows: President, Kenneth Small; Vice President, Charles Guise; Secretary, Jean Harlacker; Treasurer, Maxine Gentzler; Boys' Athletic Manager, Garth Plowman; Girls' Athletic Manager, Janice Border.

Memories

History of the

CHAPTER I

We, the class of 1948 started our high school career on September 4, 1944 with 73 members. On our first day, everyone needed maps to help find the class rooms.

The first class meeting was held on September 12. The class chose Miss Ethel Trimmer as the class advisor. They also elected officers. Those elected were: President—John Waughtel; Vice-President—William Neff; Secretary Fay Miller; Treasurer—Anna Mae Shellenberger and Historian for four years—Lois Miller.

Some of the important events for the year were: an assembly program and the class had charge of the Christmas party. The game "Truth or Consequences" was the highlight.

The class received their share of initiation which they enjoyed very much. The girls were allowed to wear only one stocking, and wore their hats on top of the head tied with a rope. The boys had lipstick smeared all over their faces.

The following left our class during the year: Robert Wiley, Marion Spangler, Ralph Snellbaker, Bessie Schaffner, Richard Kroft, John Laird, Donald Hayes and Ina Caplinger.

We acquired two new members: Gladys Hoffman and Doris Myers.

Thus ended our first chapter in the life of the class of 1948 at Dover High.

CHAPTER II

The following September, we trooped back to school. We were Sophomores.

We held our first class meeting on September 18. Our class advisor was Miss Ethel Trimmer. The following officers were elected: President— Clair Zinn; Vice-President—Scott Emig; Secretary—Fay Miller; and Treasurer—Glenn Baublitz.

This year two new teachers were added to the faculty, Mrs. Gloria Kahn replaced Mrs. Helen Laudenschlager as Home Economics Teacher and Mrs. Virgina Kunkle replaced Mr. Joseph Myers as Social Studies and Science Teacher.

The social events for the year were: Hallowe'en Party for the school, a hay ride, a house party, a skating party at Playland, and a farewell party for our class advisor at "The Fording."

The class had several outstanding athletes. Varsity players were Fay Miller, Betty Stambaugh, Arthur Weigel, Stanley Gross, John Waughtel, Warren Miller, Glenn Reeling, William Gross and William Mummert.

Having completed another year of High School, we were ready to enjoy a quiet summer in which we could recuperate and get ready to re-enter Dover High as upperclassmen.

CHAPTER III

After a peaceful summer, the Class of '48 opened the third chapter of its life at Dover High. Now we really felt important, as we were Juniors, really upperclassmen.

We welcomed Richard Stauffer to our class, but were sorry to see the following leave us: Jack Codd, Betty Gettys, William Gross, Delores Snyder, George Stare, and John Waughtel.

On September 17, 1946, we held our first class meeting. We elected Miss Mayme R. McDowell as our class advisor. For officers, we chose, Raymond Lankford, as President; Glenn Baublitz, as Vice-President; Fay Miller, as Secretary; and Allen Seiple, as Treasurer.

Class of 1948

The special events for the year were, the class play, "So Help Me Hannah", by James Stone. Raymond Lankford, and Donald Kunkel played the leading roles. Wayne Emig ranked next. He played the part of a kleptomaniac. The class also held a Hallowe'en Party. Our class was the first class to have standard school rings, which were delivered in March.

The publication of the year book was the major task of the Juniors. The following staff was chosen to edit the Memoscope: Glenn Baublitz, Editor-in-chief; Allen Seiple, Eleanor Myers, and Anna Mae Shellenberger, as Associate Editors; Fay Miller, Business Manager; Associate Business Managers, William Mummert, Clair Crone, and Arla Spahr; Helen Gerber, Circulation Manager; Assistant Circulation Managers, Jessie Rae Gross and Raymond Lankford; Lugetta Waughtel, Photo Editor; Stanley Bolton, Art Editor; Richard Funke, and Donald Kunkel acted as Assistant Art Editors. Miss Mayme McDowell was the advisor.

This year, two new teachers were added to the staff. Mrs. Mabel Laird, replaced Mrs. Virginia Kunkle, and Mr. Ray Bitting replaced Mr. Stanley Mussleman.

Again this year, we had outstanding athletes. They were: Warren Miller, Scott Emig, Stanley Gross, Glenn Reeling, Wayne Emig, Raymond Lankford, Arthur Weigel,, Allen Seiple, Clair Zinn, William Mummert, Betty Stambaugh, Fay Miller and Lois Miller.

This year in intra-mural basketball, the Girls A Team won the Championship. This team was composed of Fay Miller, Jessie Rae Gross, Lois Miller, Betty Stambaugh, Ethel Garrett, Anna Mae Shellenberger and Judith Oberlander.

Thus ends the third chapter of a happy, carefree year and we're all looking to the Fall when we would begin the fourth and final chapter in the life of the grand class of '48.

CHAPTER IV

At last! The time has come. We were really Seniors. Imagine! Now we were to be dignified. We were Seniors, the class the Freshman look at and long to be.

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: President—Glenn Baublitz, Vice-President—Raymond Lankford, Secretary—Fay Miller, Treasurer—Alma Jacobs.

We were glad to have Charlotte Rife enter our class, but she left and resumed her studies at Dillsburg. Also Raymond Updegraff, Richard Stauffer, and Charles Latchaw left the class.

The Senior Play which was presented in November was entitled, "Don't Darken My Door". Practically the entire class took part in the presentation.

Other events were: Choosing announcements, having pictures taken, going on the three day trip.

Athletes this year were: Betty Stambaugh, Fay Miller, Lois Miller, Scott Emig, Stanley Gross, Warren Miller, Arthur Weigel, Glenn Reeling, William Mummert, Raymond Lankford, Wayne Emig, Allen Seiple, Clair Zinn, Glenn Baublitz, and George Laird.

This year the girls again took the intra-mural basketball championship. The team was composed of Betty Stambaugh, Ethel Garrett, and Eleanor Myers guards; Fay Miller, Lois Miller, Anna Mae Shellenberger and Jessie Rae Gross, forwards.

Thus ends our career at Dover High. School days filled with lessons, reprimands from our teachers, athletic contests, skating parties, dances, and our trip during our Senior year, will long be remembered and talked over among us, the Alumni. And so the class of '48 has completed its journey of four short years.

Historian, Lois Miller

CLASS POEM

Listen my friends, and I shall relate,
The history of the class of '48.
'Twas the third of September in '44
That our happy throng came through the door.

The Freshman year was full of fun,
And so quite smoothly the year was run.
Green as we were, each assignment was done,
For us, even initiation was fun.

The Sophomore year was better still,
We were late to classes 'gainst the teachers' will.
Biology was taken in our stride,
Why, We even learned what a fish has inside.

The Junior year was quite all right,
We earned the title of "noisy mite".
We did each task our very best,
Plane Geometry, Physics, and all the rest.

The Senior year, the best of all,
Will long be remembered by us all.
We've lost some mates, and gained some new,
Learned what's right and wrong to do.

And now it's time to say adieu,
Many thanks from us to you.
Remember us long, and lots of luck,
Are the last few words to you—from us.

CLASS SONG

We entered Dover High School
In the year of '44,
A finer group of Freshmen
Was never seen before.

As Sophomores we were busy,
Yes, each and everyone,
With Math, English and Science
We still found time for fun.

And then we soon were Juniors
Doing things both old and new
We still kept up the good work
To Dover we were true.

And now our days at Dover
Are coming to an end,
It's time for bidding farewell
To each and every friend.

Chorus
Should old acquaintance be forgotten
And never brought to mind
We'll ne'er forget the days we've spent
At dear old Dover High.

Senior Class Will

We, the members of the graduating class of nineteen hundred and forty-eight, from the Borough and Township of Dover in the state of Pennsylvania, leave to you, our heirs, our last will and testament.

We find it fitting and proper to do this, so that you, our underclassmen, do not falter and make the same mistakes that we did.

To our faithful faculty we bequeath tons of headache remedies and sleeping powders. After we leave, we know they'll need them.

To the Juniors, we pass on our rubber bands and bubble gum, and our ability to be quiet in study hall.

To the Sophomores, we will our scholastic achievements, and our love to study for hours. We have heard that the Sophomores are having trouble studying for more than two minutes at a time.

To the Freshmen, we give our marvelous athletic ability. Use it, Freshmen, as capably as we did.

To the in-coming Freshmen, we give our blessings, hoping they will have no trouble becoming familiar with the routine and rules of Dover High School. We remember how often we were lost while going to classes and how we disobeyed a rule we didn't know existed.

Our individual bequeaths are as follows:

Glenn Baughman is very fortunate to receive Glenn Baublitz's ability to date a different girl every night.

Raymond Bechtel leaves his act of teasing the girls to Gerald Linebaugh, who, we hear, is just about a professional now.

To Barbara Weaver, goes Clair Crone's cowboying technique. Clair says he never had a scratched fender, but this we find unbelievable, don't you agree?

To Carl Livingston, that quiet and bashful soul, goes all of Jacob Eisenhart's noisiness. Maybe you better take one half of it, Carl, because we wouldn't want you to get into as much trouble as Jacob did.

Doris Marx is quite fortunate in receiving Helen Gerber's interest in Newsette work. Put it to good use, Doris.

Lois Miller wills her interest in basketball teams to Phyllis Smith. Now don't be disappointed Phyllis, we'll include Soccer.

To Robert Little goes Arthur Weigel's ability to keep the soccer ball out of the goal. We'll include a little of Weigel's height in that too, Robert.

From Merle Bolton goes his ability to hunt deer—d-e-a-r, that is, to William Jacobs. William always has a hard time luring girls into his car.

To Arthur Krone goes Stanley Bolton's wave. Stanley usually spent hours setting his hair in that deep, regular wave the girls admire.

Lorraine Deardorff leaves her lovely hands to Patricia Lang. We hope Patricia's beaus enjoy holding them, as much as Lorraine's did.

Nancy Meals receives Romaine Deardorff's "Going Steady" habit.

To Paul Berkheimer, we hand down Richard Funke's shyness in school and popularity at picnics and parties. Put it to good advantag,e, look where it got Richard! ! !

Jessie Rae Gross leaves behind all her cheerleading ability to Ruth Miller. Don't forget Ruth, at Codorus, please don't yell, "Three for Stewartstown."

Two Freshmen girls, Mildred Bubb and Betty Kinsey can rejoice in receiving a school-long friendship from Alma Jacobs and Phyllis Hoffman, who are inseparable companions.

Martha Maye Krone bequeaths her well-rounded personality to Jean Lichty.

To Billy Brunk goes all of Raymond Lankford's good looks. We hope the girls can concentrate on their studies when Billy's around. They never could when Raymond was in study hall.

Lugetta Waughtel leaves her expert dancing ability to Donna Beam.

And Testament

Betty Lentz wills her petite figure to Althea King, so the other girls on the basketball teams won't look so small during games.

Margaret Wintermeyer receives Delores Metzel's serious attitude in class. As we hear it, Margaret doesn't need it in class, but a little outside of class wouldn't hurt.

Jeanne Gross should be very thankful to receive all of Fay Miller's extra-curricular activities. Take it from us, you'll be very busy, Jeanne.

Ethel Garrett leaves all her giggles to Louise Eisenhart, who seems to have quite an assortment of her own.

To Earl Anderson goes Wayne Emig's date books. We hope it will help you Earl.

Warren Miller, the boy who never seemed to be in Room 5, wills all his extra-curricular activities to Floyd Bubb, who seems to have the same trouble.

Delores Flohr bequeaths her captivating smile to Jean Eisenhart.

Donald Myers leaves his long list of girl friends to Robert Kottmyer, whom we believe doesn't need them. So we've heard.

Ray Ness wills his dimples to that cute Freshman, George Schneider.

Arla Spahr leaves her track ability to Loris Baublitz. We sincerely hope it brings further honor to Dover High.

To Fairy Crone goes Judith Oberlander's talking in library period so Miss McDowell does not need to look twice to see if Fairy is there.

Glenn Reeling leaves his notebook of excuses for not having assignments completed to John Bupp, who we believe can use it to get thru some very tight spots.

Allen Seiple gives his ability to say memory verses two weeks after the deadline to Stephen Deckman, who has the same trouble.

To George Airing, Clair Zinn leaves his remarkable ability of making book reports without completely reading the book.

William Harlacker leaves his, "Playing Hooky Game" to Kermit Messinger.

Donald Kunkel wills his desire to play the role of "Lover" in plays to Glenn Baughman, who seems to thrive on it.

Dawn Small is bequeathed Anna Mae Henry's lovely singing voice.

Scott Emig leaves his ability and desire to participate in sports to Ronald Andrews, who needs a little energy to get from one classroom to another.

We give George Laird's desire to participate in plays to Harry Ort who is much too shy to appear before his class to recite.

Niles Shearer passes on his natural ability for farming to his brother Darwin.

Eleanor Myers bequeaths her role of playing cupid to Margaret Morgart.

Harry Mills wills his inability to hold his driver's license to "Cowboy", to Clifford Staub.

William Mummert gives his desire for needing assistance in driving his Frazer to Glenn Snelbecker. More fun that way, isn't it William?

Stanley Gross wills his ability to work miracles on the soccer field to John Carroll. And please, John, don't wait until after the game to do it, that's too exciting!

Marie Wentz passes down her desire to be quiet in class to Hilda Drawbaugh.

Bruce Walton wills his ability to fight, "Anybody and everybody" to George Airing who seems to have used it already.

Anna Mae Shellenberger leaves all her musical talent to Grace May.

TESTATOR, Anna Mae Shellenberger

As I boarded a plane for New York City who should I meet but the lovely and glamorous stewardess, Betty Lentz. She told me that the pilot of this plane was our former classmate, Donald Kunkel.

Our plane arrived in New York on schedule. As I had such heavy luggage, I signaled a porter. I noticed the head porter, Ray Ness, straightening out some difficulty. We talked of old times when we were in school together.

I had to share a taxi cab with several other people. Delores Metzel, one of my high school chums was also in the cab. She told me that she was leaving in a few days for India to meet her rich husband and asked me to spend that time with her.

So we proceeded to her hotel. As we entered, the manager, none other than Warren Miller, walked up to us! After words of greeting, he took us to a booth where his assistant manager, Merle Bolton sat. We spent a few minutes talking to them, and then retired to our rooms.

(Shortly afterward, Delores and I, being hungry, went to a large restaurant for dinner). Lois Miller was the waitress here. Lois had married Allen Seiple who was now retired on his wife's salary.

When our lengthy meal was over, we went to the opera, "Madam Butterfly". The star performer was Annamae Henry, the guest pianist, Fay Miller

As we were leaving the opera house we met Clair Zinn and Raymond Bechtel. Clair told us he was the owner of a prosperous garage and Raymond was busy at his old job chasing the pretty girls around town. They asked us to go dancing.

We accepted the invitation and went to the Star Light Roof and danced to the romantic music of Stanley Gross' orchestra. Later the floor show began and who should come out but the Rhumba queen herself, Lugetta Waughtel.

The next morning Delores and I took a boat tour of the Manhattan water front. Among other things, we saw a huge building with a sign which said; "Donald Myers, Contractor." "Like father, like son," we said.

Our skipper was that handsome fellow, Raymond Lankford. After the boat tour we still had the afternoon free so we decided to go to a fashion show. First on the list were some stunning dinner clothes designed by the famous Martha Maye Krone. Then came a beautiful blonde modeling a bathing suit. I had to look twice, but then I saw it was Delores Flohr. She always had the figure and good looks necessary for a model. We went back stage to chat with Delores and who should we see but Wayne Emig with a box of chocolates. Do you remember how sweet he was on Delores when we were in school?

That evening we went to the art museum where we saw those two great artists Stanley Bolton and Richard Funke, who were there in person watching their critics. We approached them, and felt honored when they recognized us. We had a long chat with them and found out that Ethel Garrett was married and lived on the outskirts of New York in a large house. Stanley told us she had several little happy-go-lucky blondes, which took up most of her time.

The next day we went to one of the outstanding colleges of New York where we met Bruce Walton who had just completed an enlistment in the Navy and had returned to college to further his education. He was spending all of his time as usual, molesting a good looking young teacher, who was our own Anna Mae Shellenberger. We also learned that Betty Stambaugh was the girls' physical education teacher.

The next day Delores had to sail for India so I went to the wharf with her. On our way there our taxi driver was caught in a traffic jam, which we discovered to be a funeral going by and the mortician was Scott Emig.

Later, I boarded a plane for my home town of Dover. About midway to my destination, the plane ran into a rough storm and had to make a forced landing. Luckily, a farm house was close by and the passengers were invited to come in and wait until the storm subsided. I received quite a surprise when I recognized our gracious hostess to be none other than Romaine Deardorff. I found out that she and Clair Crone were married and lived there.

When the storm subsided we continued on our way. Upon reaching our destination, I decided to go to a beauty parlor and get my hair set. To my surprise, the operators were Lorraine Deardorff and Marie Wentz.

As I was leaving I noticed several small modernestic buildings which were erected on that vacant lot across from the school. It was a motel. I decided to stay there for the night. I walked to the office to register and I discovered that the manager of this fine establishment was none other than our own Glenn Baublitz.

The next day I decided to do some shopping, and my former schoolmate Arla Spahr loaned me her car to go to York. I hadn't gone very far when the car began sputtering and almost stopped when I noticed a garage close by. The owner of it was William Mummert. He said it would take several hours to fix it so I continued on my way by bus.

I stepped into the bus and the driver said, "Fare Please". His voice sounded familiar. I took a close look, and sure enough it was Arthur Weigel. He was certainly on the right route—Dover to York—he probably drives the bus while he's asleep—he knows the road so well.

When we arrived in York I got off the bus and started down the street when whom should I see but Glenn Reeling. He told me he was coach of a soccer team at one of the large high schools of Pittsburgh. A little later I entered a dress shop and a clerk came up to me saying in a pleasent voice, "May I help you please?" After looking a second time I saw it was my own classmate, Phyllis Hoffman.

After selecting a dress I was very tired, so I decided to relax by going to a movie. When I was buying my ticket someone said, "Hello there". Boy was I surprised to see Alma Jacobs. She told me the owner of the show was Jacob Eisenhart.

That evening as I was glancing through the paper I saw that a Helen Gerber was giving a lecture on "Good Grooming." I once knew a girl by that name and I just had to see if it was the same girl, and sure enough, it was Helen. Her lecture was very good and I especially enjoyed it when Annamae Henry demonstrated the product. While listening to the lecture, I heard some annoying sound in back of me. I turned to see what it was and there slumped over in his seat sat William Harlacker, sleeping as usual. And behind him was Niles Shearer and his wife, Judith Oberlander.

Making noise was George Laird's specialty in school so I was not surprised when later that evening at Lakeside Park I heard him shouting, "Peanuts, peanuts for sale".

The next day was to be spent at the Dover ice skating arena. I did want to see the specialty skate numbers by the world's most famous skating team, "The De la Marionettes. At last, to the blare of fan fare, the famous skaters appeared. I stared, I gasped, I shouted," Jessie Rae, Harry"—for there they were—two of my classmates Jessie Rae Gross and Harry Mills.

Discovering these two, completed a most wonderful trip and it was with complete satisfaction that I settled back in the train that bore me back to my humdrum life as just a housewife—but after all Mr. —— was waiting for me so—"Life is grand" and as Mrs. Eleanor Myers —— I was completely happy.
